

A serene landscape with a stone path leading through trees towards a bright sunset or sunrise. The path is made of irregular stones and is flanked by lush greenery and trees. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow that filters through the leaves. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Lovesick

The ache you feel when someone you love is far away or a relationship is broken — you can't stop thinking about them, you keep the door open, you hope, you show up uninvited, you keep loving even when it isn't returned yet.

Eden: Face-to-Face Closeness

- God walked with Adam and Eve in the cool of the day — a regular rhythm, not a one-time visit
- No priest, temple, altar, sacrifice, or veil between them
- God breathed life into Adam Himself and planted a garden just for them
- This is the blueprint: nearness, not distance — relationship, not just rules

And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

— Genesis 3:8

The Fall: The Barrier of Sin

- Adam and Eve hide from God — shame replaces intimacy
- They are sent out of the garden; cherubim and a flaming sword guard the way back
- This isn't God abandoning them out of anger alone — sin creates a real barrier
- Even in judgment, God clothes them Himself — love threading through the consequence

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.

— Genesis 3:15

The Promise: A Father Who Keeps Pursuing

- God calls Abraham and makes a covenant: 'I will be your God, and you will be my people'
- This covenant language repeats again and again throughout Scripture
- Even after the Fall, God is already binding Himself back to His people
- The pursuit doesn't wait for humanity to get it together first

Tabernacle & Temple: Moving Closer

- God: 'Let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them' (Exodus 25:8)
- The Tabernacle, then the Temple — God's presence pitching a tent in the middle of the camp
- Still a veil, still a Holy of Holies — access was limited, but the direction is unmistakable
- God is moving toward His people, not waiting at a distance for them to arrive

Immanuel: God With Us in the Flesh

- 'The Word became flesh and dwelt among us' (John 1:14)
- Literally: 'moved into the neighborhood' — God doesn't just visit, He moves in
- Jesus eats with sinners, touches the unclean, welcomes the outcast
- The distance from Eden is closing — God is now near enough to touch

And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. And the earth shook, and the rocks were split.

— Matthew 27:51

The Way Is Open — Now the Story Reaches Home

New Jerusalem: Home at Last

- 'Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man' (Revelation 21:3)
- No temple, no veil, no barrier — God's presence fills everything
- Every tear wiped away, death and mourning gone
- The story that began in a garden ends in a city where God lives with His people forever

Through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

— Revelation 22:2

Eden Lost, Eden Restored

Genesis 3

- Sin enters the world
- Access to God's presence lost
- Cherubim guard the way back
- Death enters as a consequence

Revelation 21-22

- Sin and its curse are gone
- Access to God's presence fully restored
- The way is forever open
- Death is swallowed up in victory

For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.

— Luke 19:10
